We recommend You review the contents of this document to help You understand Our Jewellery Insurance product coverage before you decide to buy this product.

Centrestone Jewellery Insurance is designed for people who do not have their items of jewellery insured elsewhere, or who wish to insure them separately, and who want to cover the costs of Repair or Replacement following an Occurrence(s) involving the Specified Item(s). This insurance is subject to the terms, conditions and limitations, as set out in this document.

The PDS contains important information about:

- significant features and benefits of Centrestone Jewellery Insurance;
- your duty of disclosure when applying for Centrestone Jewellery Insurance;
- our internal and external dispute resolution procedures; and
- your cooling off rights when purchasing Centrestone Jewellery Insurance.

Please note that, while this PDS provides a summary of the significant features and benefit of Centrestone Jewellery Insurance, you must also read the Policy Wording in this booklet to understand the insurance provided (including what terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations may apply to your cover).

Sometimes we need to change the wording of the policy before it is issued to you because your insurance varies depending on a number of factors. We do this by adding what is called an endorsement. You will find any endorsements that apply to your policy stated on your Policy Schedule.

We may need to update this PDS from time to time if certain changes occur and where required by law. If the change results in a material change from the PDS you hold, we will provide you with a new PDS or supplementary PDS. Where the change to the PDS is not materially adverse we will not notify you. You can obtain a copy of any updated information by visiting www.centrestone.com.au.

1.1 Your Duty of Disclosure – Before you enter into a general insurance contract, you have a Duty of Disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know is relevant to the Insurers decision whether to insure you and if so, upon what terms. This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into.

You have the same duty before you extend, vary or reinstate the insurance. This duty does not require disclosure of any matter that:

- reduces the risk to the Insurer;
- is of common knowledge;
- the Insurers knows, or in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know; or

- where compliance with this duty is waived by the Insurer.

If you fail to comply with this duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may be entitled to cancel the contract from its beginning.

1.2 Calculating Your Premium – The cost of the insurance (premium) will be shown in the Policy Schedule. It will depend on various factors including the type of jewellery, the value of the jewellery, the geographic area in which the jewellery will be worn, the amount of the excess, your claims history and the term of the insurance. The premium also includes statutory charges such as GST and stamp duty.

1.3 Cooling Off Period – After this insurance commences or you renew your policy for another Period of Insurance you have 14 days as a “cooling off period”. Should you wish, and provided you have not made a claim you can cancel your insurance from the day cover began or was renewed. We will then refund in full any money paid.

1.4 Applying for Cover – You must provide all requested information and comply with your Duty of Disclosure as outlined in this document. We will use this information to provide you a quotation. If You decide to accept the terms of the quotation, We will issue You with a Policy Schedule. The Policy Schedule will contain important information relevant to Your Policy including the Period of Insurance, premium, details of Your jewellery, the Excess(s) that will apply and whether any standard terms have been varied by way of endorsement.

We will send You a renewal notice before the Policy expiry date and time shown in the Policy Schedule which will state whether We will offer to renew Your policy and on what terms.

1.5 What the Policy Insures – For Your Specified Items anywhere in the world for up to the Sum Insured stated in the Policy Schedule for a loss or damage subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set out in this Policy that occurs during the Policy Period and subject to the payment of the Excess.

- If You have failed to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy, including any non-payment of premium.
- If You have made a fraudulent claim under Your Policy or under another contract of insurance which provides cover over the same duration in which Our Policy provides cover.

Should We choose to cancel Your Policy, We will provide You three days notice in writing informing of the cancellation date and detail of the reason for cancellation. We will write to You at the address last notified to Us.

Should we decide to cancel Your Policy, We may elect to deduct a premium amount for time on risk and any taxes, commissions and charges We cannot recover, plus reasonable administration costs, but not exceeding 10% of the initial premium plus any endorsements.

If You have lodged a claim against Your Policy and We have agreed to pay the claim, there will be no return of unused premium to You.

Where Your Policy has been funded by a premium funding company, We will refund the unexpired portion of premium directly to the premium funding company. This is subject to the Policy being claims free.
